Research Analyst

FactSet

As a Research Analyst in Factset , I Collect, analyze, and process financial market data from various data sources and into the database utilized by the team.

I Focus and ensure that the integrity of the company's financial market information is intact.

I Will Provide timely, accurate, and reliable demographic and statistical financial market data on the internal database and to internal/external clientele.

I Fix the audit resolutions and recommendations coming from the QC\Policy team based on specific guidelines.

I Fulfill the research/analytical/ market study needs as and when required/ requested by external clients in order to procure and retain future/current business.

The job also involves reporting and maintaining records of work done on a timely basis.

I Share Ideas and Best Practices from a Process Improvement Perspective.
